

Our class trip

In the morning we met at the bus station and went to Engstingen. We were so excited. It wasn't a long way. We played games and ate sweets. We arrived at the bus station in Engstingen at 9 o'clock. It snowed and we played snow war, while we were waiting for the instructor. A few minutes later the instructor arrived and took our luggage. Some students didn't have their own walking boots but that was no problem. The Albläufer have enough walking boots. The instructor told us the way to the wooden hut and gave us maps and a compass so that we could find the way. We all started our way together. On the way we took photos of the snowy forest. When we arrived we had a short break and ate and drank something.

The instructors told us something about the activities. Our group started the campfire. It wasn't easy because the wood was very wet. But we had sausages. Then we followed the other groups to the slackline course. We had one blindfolded person in our group, so we learned teamwork. That was crazy! At the end of the first day we went to our house and unpacked our bags. We did our beds and then we had dinner.

On the next day we went in groups to a campfire site. We only had a map and a compass. It was really cool without instructors.

We all found the site. One group wanted to start a campfire but the wood was too wet. The groups went to different team stations in the forest. We had to save a pig, climb in a group and follow a rope through the forest blindfolded. After that we went back to the house together.

In the evening we played games together. At 9.30 p.m. we went to bed.

On the next day we cleaned the house. Then we took our bags and put them in the car. We walked to the bus station and took our bags out of the car. We took the bus back to Reutlingen.

That was an amazing trip!
